

A MILLION REASONS TO SUPPORT HOTEL WORKERS

There are times in our past when labour and community activists have joined together in the kind of struggle that makes history. Within that history, each generation of working people who come to Toronto discover that they need unions to improve things for themselves, their families and their communities. But in today's economy, the gains of past years often seem elusive. Nowhere is that more true than in the hotel industry, with its rapid consolidation of ownership and globalization of brands.

An epic struggle is unfolding across North America as hotel workers mobilize to raise their standards. For too long their work has been underpaid and undervalued. Help support the members of UNITE HERE Local 75 as they seek to:

- Raise wages and benefits throughout the entire industry
- Ease workload that is causing severe health problems
- Win decent, secure, skilled jobs for the future

Achieving this, and helping others organize, will ensure that the standard of living of all hotel workers is improved. These workers need your solidarity - to make good hotel jobs a reality!
