

WOMEN'S POLITICAL FORUM

Saturday, April 24, 2010
OFL Building, 15 Gervais Dr.
Registration - $40.00

MUNICIPAL FUNDAMENTALS (Municipal 101)

If you've ever wondered what City Council does/ how it works or how a School Board Trustee impacts the day to day life of your children, then this workshop is for you. This training session will look at the fundamentals of civic politics - how City Councils and School Boards impact our lives.

ORGANIZER TRAINING

Campaigns require organizers - this workshop will equip participants with in-depth organizing and co-ordinating skills for campaigns. The workshop will reinforce the importance of campaign strategic planning, the steps required to develop such a plan, strengthen skills in volunteer recruitment, leadership, problem solving techniques, coalition strategies, campaign organizing and voter contact.

CAMPAIGN MANAGER

The campaign manager is the key player in any campaign. This workshop is designed for those who want to put their organizing and leadership skills to the test and learn some of the fundamentals in developing strategic campaign and interpersonal skills.

CANDIDATE TRAINING

Have you considered being a candidate for city council or school board trustee? This workshop will help with the fundamentals of being a candidate - how to get started, putting together a campaign team, fundraising, council and school board structure, talking to the media.
