AFFORDABLE HOUSING AND FUND OUR SCHOOLS RALLY

- Stable housing is essential for attendance, learning, and academic success
- Housing instability and frequent moves increase absenteeism and lower performance
- High housing costs limit spending on education and enrichment
- Poor or overcrowded housing harms health and cognitive development
- Safe, well-located housing improves access to quality schools
- Stable housing leads to better math and reading outcomes
- Crowded living conditions contribute to behavioral and emotional challenges
- Subsidized housing is linked to higher earnings later in life
- Homelessness significantly reduces academic proficiency
- Lack of affordable student housing increases stress and inequality in higher education
